BOOK SYNOPSIS

Excerpt from Proceedings of the Medical Society of the State of Pennsylvania, in Relation to the Hospital for the Insane, at Dixmont: Friday, May 31, 1878 The man or woman who could visit the beautiful apartments of Dixmont Hospital, see the provision that is made for the care and comfort of the unfortunate insane, witness the pleasant condition of the five hundred and eighty-seven inmates, and their surroundings, and not sincerely thank God for the existence of such a noble institution, must possess a heart that no friend of humanity need for a moment covet or desire. For myself, I can affirm with truth, that always after passing through its grand and magnificent wards, a deep feeling of thankfulness possesses me, that such a home was provided for our unfortunate fellow men whose reason is dethroned.
